

Form B: Disclosure of competing interests for bulletin staff

Unless a competing interest policy is part of the contract of employment, each staff member with responsibility for bulletin content should submit a declaration of competing interests each year. The chief editor or publisher of each bulletin is responsible for the collection of individual returns from staff members.

Section 1. Personal information

Given Name (First Name) Antonio

Surname (Last Name) Matas

Date of completion of this form 25-11-2019

Role in the bulletin. Chief editor

Please specify whether your work for the bulletin is paid or unpaid. My work in the bulletin is covered by my salary as Technician Specialist of the Andalusian Center of Drug Information (CADIME), but I have some other functions.

Section 2. Relevant activities outside the bulletin

I have not any relationships with biomedical entities or external institutions that could influence my work in the bulletin. I do not perceive any funds of any type apart from my salary.

As a part of my work, I am a member of some institutional commissions of the Andalusian Public Health System in which I have decision-making responsibilities. This could be perceived as a potential influence for my work in the bulletin.
